Tenor Sol; Vocal Words

Howl, howl, Howl. What I say?

Howl.

I will die knowing,

To be killed the clan.

Even my son being killed by the mother.

This is! This is! Last picture of my life?

Oh! howl, howl, howl

Say no to where is the mercy of God?

Say God's mercy is unreserved in my family!

Chours; Vocal Words

The harvest season is coming,

Her dream that prayerful thoughts

Has been growing!

Now! She can reap those.

That resentment was erased from this earth clan

When dispel is coming near.

She is without a doubt,

To take over their blood clan

Erased from this earth.

If you can, please do play on Tenor-part Instruments (but only one or two) with Sol-Vocal

The har - vest sea - son is coming, Her dream that
 - that prayer - ful thoughts Has been growing!

INSTRUMENT RANGES

About; Some of Instruments; there is a difference between writing-note and real-note. for instance:

WOODWINDS; Piccolo(in C) -- like this --

The diagram shows a single staff with a treble clef. A note is written on the first line (C4). Above this note are three vertical lines representing a ledger line. A double bar line is placed after the first measure. In the second measure, a note is written on the first space (C5), which is one octave higher than the written note. Above this note are five vertical lines representing a ledger line. The text "written" is placed above the first note, and "sounds one octave higher" is placed below the second note.

Bass Flute-- like this --

The diagram shows a single staff with a treble clef. A note is written on the first space (C4). Above this note are three vertical lines representing a ledger line. A double bar line is placed after the first measure. In the second measure, a note is written on the first line (C3), which is one octave lower than the written note. Below this note is a bass clef. In the third measure, a note is written on the first space (C4), which is the sounding note. Above this note are three vertical lines representing a ledger line. The text "written" is placed above the first note, and "sounds one octave lower" is placed below the second note.
